SOS Ladies

Dear SOS Ladies,

We have another big month ahead! Our next meeting will be held at Milan Restaurant (1712 Meridian Ave F, San Jose, CA 95125). We'll enjoy a private space, plenty of safe parking, delicious food, and—of course—wonderful companionship. It's the perfect spot for us to gather, share stories, and enjoy each other's company.

Milan will be offering a prix-fixe menu with three entrée options to choose from that evening—so everyone can select what sounds best on the spot!

Please be sure to RSVP by Tuesday, November 4th, so we can confirm our count with the restaurant.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who placed and collected poinsettia orders—your efforts and support make such a difference!

I look forward to seeing all of you at Milan and celebrating another lovely evening together.

CELEBRATING OUR CULTURE

Sicily in November

November in Sicily brings rich traditions and seasonal flavors. Early in the month, families commemorate Ognissanti and I Morti with sweets like "frutta martorana," the colorful almond marzipan fruits you'll see in Palermo's pastry shops. As olive harvest season peaks, mills across the countryside press the year's first "olio nuovo," a peppery, vibrant olive oil that locals drizzle on warm bread and roasted veggies. Markets fill with chestnuts, wild mushrooms, and citrus, and in towns like Caltanissetta and Agrigento, weekend fairs spotlight artisanal treats and music—perfect for savoring Sicily's autumn charm.
