Carte Di Donne

Hello ladies!

We hope this newsletter continues to find you happy and healthy. As the weather warms up we're so excited to see our community to continue on the right path to getting us back to normal.

We're excited to see you all at our next meeting on Tuesday May 11th. We'll be having Veal Giacomo for dinner, and will be meeting in the Garden Room. Please remember to RSVP to let us know that you're attending.

Save the date! Tuesday July 13th will be our summer celebration and luau dinner. Your board is planning something special to commemorate the crazy year we've had. We hope everyone will feel comfortable joining us for this celebration!

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

Lisa, Ramona, Julie, Jessica & Lauren

Cultural Corner | Infiorata di Noto

In the beautiful World Heritage Baroque city of Noto, the Infiorata Festival is celebrated by covering an entire street with flowers. Teams of young artists use millions of flower petals to adorn the floor of the street shaping elaborate multicolored designs.

Recipe of the Month | Granita a Limone

❖ Ingredients

- 1/2 l water
- 300 g sugar
- 5 lemons

1. Wash the lemons thoroughly and grate the zest of 2 lemons. Squeeze all the lemons, strain the juice to remove seeds, and set aside.

2. Place water, sugar, and lemon zest in a saucepan. Heat over low flame until the sugar is completely dissolved. Remove from heat before the syrup starts boiling

3. Cool the syrup and add the lemon juice. to keep them from turning brown. Preheat oven to 375°F

4. Transfer the mixture into a shallow container and place it into a freezer. Stir occasionally using a spatula to prevent the aromas and sugar from falling to the bottom of the container and to give the granita a coarse texture

5. Serve in dessert glasses and garnish with fresh mint leaves or your favorite fresh berries.

Dinner Update

Just a reminder - dinner cost is now $25. Please remember to plan appropriately for the meeting on May 11th.
