6. Old Business:

- a. December 3 was our ladies club social at the Pasta Market on Coleman Avenue. It was nice to get together with several of our Sicilian sisters for lunch. The lunch was delicious and the company even better.
- b. December 16 was the men's club Christmas party which was very nice. The food was excellent, prime rib, salmon, pasta, salad and rolls with cannolis for dessert which were filled by some of our ladies. The raffle was a huge success; the money that was earned from the raffle was $610.00. All the baskets that were made for the raffle prizes were donated by the ladies club. At the November meeting the ladies donated gift cards to Child Advocates of SV totally $600.00.

7. New Business:

- a. Paulette has created an emergency contact list of all of our club members. In case of emergency there will be someone to contact.
- b. RSVP: Please make sure to RSVP for our meeting on the Friday prior to our meeting on Tuesday.
- c. Scholarships: Revisited funding a scholarship for a youth turning 21 and aging out of the foster care system via Child Advocates of Silicon Valley. Also discussed funding a scholarship through the Aiuto Foundation. Esther is to research and determine how much funding we have to donate in order to maintain our non profit status.

8. Updates from the Floor

- a. Cindy Hays mentioned that she had Holy Cannoli cater an event for her and they did a fabulous job. She thought it may be worthwhile to check into their pricing for our dinners.

9. Upcoming Meetings: Our next meeting will be on Tuesday February 7.

10. Dinner Served: Fettuccine Leonardo, salad and breadsticks with cheese spread.

11. Additional Activities: Crab feeds coming up February 11 and March 11. Also possibly coordinating an outing for lunch or a movie.

12. Meeting Adjourn: 7:40pm
